Angola attends Portuguese language theatre festival

Luanda - Miragens and Dadaísmo theatre companies will represent Angola in the third edition of the Theatre Festival of the Portuguese Language (FESTLIP/2010), on July 14-26, in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, ANGOP has learnt.

Dadísimo company's spokesman, Aurélio Quincunga, said to ANGOP that the event is also open to representatives of Brazil, Cape Verde, Portugal and Mozambique.

During the festival, the groups will also participate in a training programme, for the standardisation of theatre procedures.

Miragens will display the work entitled "4'30" and Dadísimo will perform Olímiás, based in a book by the Angolan writer Adriano Botelho de Vasconcelos.
